STAT

As you know, I have now taken over from General Vandenberg as the Director of Central Intelligence and, realizing the importance and the necessity for retaining your assistance, I bespeak your continued guidance and hope that I may feel free to call on you at any time for advice both regarding the internal and external affairs of this agency. While the natural summer let-down in all activities will probably preclude the Board of Consultants getting together as a body, if anything does come up, may I call upon you?

At the present time I am in the thick of things, as you can well imagine, but I trust that I shall see you personally in the very near future. When you come to Washington and can spare the time, I hope that you will be kind enough to contact me as I should very much like to have the opportunity of talking to you.

In the meantime, with very best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

R. H. Hillenkoetter
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence
